STATEWIDE INDEPENDENT LIVING COUNCIL TO SPONSOR COMMUNITY OUTREACH WORKSHOP

(PHOENIX, May 19, 2000) – The Governor's Statewide Independent Living Council (SILC) will be hosting a community outreach workshop to be held on Friday, June 2, 2000 from 1:00-4:00 p.m. in the Cotton Room of the Holiday Inn, 777 N. Pinal in Casa Grande, AZ.

This community outreach workshop is sponsored by the Governor's Statewide Independent Living Council in partnership with DIRECT Center for Independence, Inc., Assist! To Independence and the Arizona Center for Disability Law, along with representatives from the Arizona State Department of Economic Security, Division of Developmental Disabilities and the Rehabilitation Services Administration Vocational Rehabilitation Program.

SILC invites people with disabilities along with their families and friends and community advocates to attend these informational workshops on independent living. Topics discussed will be: "How to Utilize Community Resources to Your Advantage in Order to Gain Mobility," and "Tips 'N Techniques to Access Employment Opportunities."

It will be appreciated if persons attending this workshop refrain from wearing perfume or other scented products.

Persons with a disability may request a reasonable accommodation, such as a sign language interpreter, by contacting Linda C. Olson, Acting SILC Program Coordinator, at 602-542-3332 Voice; or 602-542-6049 TTD.
